

1 Roman Britain

a) Watch the first part of the film and tick (✓) the correct answer.

	right	wrong
1. The road is under the grass.
2. The Roman road is almost 2,000 years old.
3. Ackling Dyke is west of Salisbury.
4. An agger is another word for dyke or huge bank.
5. The agger is five metres high.
6. The road is next to the agger.
7. The presenter digs up Ackling Dyke to show us how the Romans built their roads.

b) Watch the second part of the film. How did the Romans build roads?
Match the phrases to the pictures.

1

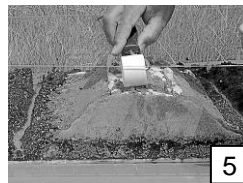

2

3

4

5

___ mark edges of the road

___ dig ditches

___ give the road its smooth surface

___ build the agger

___ lay the foundations

2 A typical day of a Roman soldier

Look at the pictures and describe a typical day of a Roman soldier.

